Which Board, Commission or Committee are you applying for?	Zoning Board of Appeals
Please explain why you would like to serve on a particular Board, Commission or Committee:	As I retired early in life, I am considering local work that I find personally challenging and interesting. We have resided in Amesbury since 2007 and are big fans of the city and current efforts to make Amesbury an even better place to work and live. I have been looking for a way to contribute to the city government specifically and have heard repeatedly of the great need for committee volunteers, specifically on the Zoning Board of Appeals or Conservation Commission. I have a strong desire to help where needed, so I could be flexible in the preference of whichever committee has the greatest need.
Please briefly describe your education and any	I consider myself to be highly dependable and mature with over 35 years professionally collaborating with people from various relevant work or life experience or other activity which, in your opinion, would be beneficial in carrying out the responsibilities of this office. If necessary, attach additional sheets or your resume.

backgrounds. My strong skills in communication, problem solving, investigation, project management and legal compliance, have been dependable assets throughout my career. I have effectively used these skills in a wide range of experiences, everything from supervising small teams to managing national programs to oversight of a large construction project. I am a quick learner and have a wealth of time to contribute. I have attached my resume and would be happy to discuss any questions you may have about my qualifications.

Please list any City offices you have held in Amesbury or elsewhere. Please share the name of the Office held, the date you were appointed or elected, and the date when your term expired.

I have not held any office in Amesbury. I was formerly a police officer in Knoxville TN and an FBI Special Agent.

Public service on a Board, Committee, or Commission can be demanding. Please indicate the realistic time commitment you are willing and able to make:

6+ hours per week

Additionally, please describe any standing commitments you may have which might conflict with set meeting schedules:

The only commitment on my calendar currently is a family trip just before Christmas.
